Students' Code of Conduct

To be recited at the beginning of each class and during Gradings or Assessments

- I shall honour my Instructor and conduct myself according to his example.
- I shall honour the Chinese martial arts by building my character through the pursuit of self discipline, self control, patients, humility and justice.
- I shall honour the code of righteousness and use my skills defensively in the pursuit of justice.
- I shall honour my school by striving for excellence through diligent training.
- I shall honour my fellow classmates in my determination to excel and to see them excel also.
- I shall honour the student code by exemplifying these principles to develop myself and others.
